Imagine this scenario...

You're scrolling through your feed, and within minutes, the algorithm has shifted from funny memes to something much darker. It's happening to our youth every single day—hidden in plain sight, behind glowing screens.

How do we stop the cycle of online radicalization before it starts?

Join us for a powerful screening of the documentary "Raised by Wolves," a deep dive into how social media platforms are being used to radicalize young people, fueling a rise in hate, violence, and extremism.

The Event Experience

This isn't just a movie night; it's a call to action. Following the film, we're hosting an exclusive Panel Discussion featuring the film's Director and guest experts who will help us process the film's revelations and bridge the gap between awareness and impact.

What You'll Walk Away With:

- Increased Awareness: Understand the subtle "rabbit hole" mechanics of modern social media.
- Best Practices: Learn how to identify early warning signs of digital radicalization.
- Your Voice: Discover how to speak up and advocate for safer digital spaces.
- Practical Tools: Concrete strategies to protect the youth in your community.

Imagine this scenario...

You're watching your child or a young person you care about spend hours online. They seem more withdrawn, their language is changing, and their views are becoming increasingly extreme. You feel the gap between you widening, but you don't know how to reach across it.

The digital "rabbit hole" is real, and it's affecting families right here in Cuyahoga County. It's time to take the power back from the algorithms.

The Event: Breaking the Cycle of Online Radicalization and Hate

Join us for a transformative webinar featuring nationally recognized authorities on the front lines of online radicalization. We are pulling back the curtain on how hate culture traps our youth—and how we can pull them out.

Special Highlight: Hear a courageous first-hand presentation from a formerly radicalized young person who will share their journey into and out of extremism, providing invaluable insight into the "why" behind the shift.

From Awareness to Action

After the presentations, join our interactive panel discussion. We aren't just talking about the problem; we're focusing on issue-based initiatives specifically designed to reduce the impact of radicalization in our local community.

What You'll Walk Away With:

- Increased Awareness: Understand the psychological tactics used to recruit youth online.
- Best Practices: Expert-backed methods to navigate difficult conversations and interventions.
- Your Voice: Empower yourself to speak out against hate culture with confidence.
- The Tools: Practical strategies to mitigate the effects of radicalization on your family.
